From Thursday September 12 to Monday September 16. 1706.

Whitehall, September 14.

WE have this Day received the Confirmation of the great and ſignal Victory wherewith it has pleaſed God to bleſs the Arms of Her Majeſty and Her Allies in Italy. Prince Eugene had joined the Duke of Savoy before the Battle, which happened the 7th Inſtant. The Enemy were totally routed, a great Number of their Men, ſeveral of them Officers of Note, were ſlain, their Cannon and Bagage taken, and many were made Priſoners, among whom is the Marſhal de Marſin, who was wounded with a Shot in his Thigh, which it is thought will prove mortal. The Duke of Orleans had alſo very dangerous Contuſions from ſeveral Shot he received upon his Armour. This glorious Succeſs (under God) is owing to the great Conduct and Bravery of the Duke of Savoy and Prince Eugene, who animated the Troops by their own Example, expoſing their Perſons in Places where was moſt Danger; and was attended with the raiſing the Siege of Turin.

Upon the Receipt of this News at the French Court, the Marſhal de Catinat was immediately ſent away to Italy to ſupply the Place of the Marſhal de Marſin.

The 9th Inſtant, N. S. the Count de Medavi ſurpriſed the Prince of Heſſe, beat his advanced Guards, and took 6 Pieces of Cannon. The Particulars of this Action, as well as of the Victory, we expect by the Holland Mails, of which Five were due yeſterday.

Dendermonde, which had been beſieged ſince the 29th of the laſt Month, capitulated the 5th Inſtant, N. S. and immediately after the Surrender of that important Place, Aeth was beſieged, which in all probability could hold out but a few Days.

They write from Spain, That the Duke of Berwick was detached from the Duke of Anjou's Army, to cover Salamanca from any Attempts that might be made by the Forces ſent that way from Portugal.

The Earl of Galway had ſent away his heavy Bagage; and it was believed, the two Armies being ſo near one another, and both in Motion, a Battle would ſoon enſue.

Ratisbon, Aug. 26. N. S. The Regiment of Dragoons of Wolfskel came by Water the 22d Inſtant to this Place, and is ſince gone down the Danube, in order to its being ſent to Hungary, to join the Imperial Army in that Country. The Imperial Diet, which has been adjourned ſome Days, will meet again to morrow. The Elector of Mentz's Deputy is expected here in a Day or two from his Electoral Highneſs's Court; as is alſo the Sieur Jodoci from Duſſeldorp, who is appointed by the Emperor to be one of his Deputies at the Diet.

Cologne, September 1. N. S. The French Party man La Croix paſſed the Rhine lately between this Place and Bon with a ſtrong Party of Horſe, and attempted to make an Excurſion into the Country of Berg, but met with ſo warm a Reception from ſome few regular Troops and Militia which were poſted on that ſide, that he was ſoon obliged to retire, leaving behind him ſeveral of his Men ſlain, and others who were taken Priſoners. The French Parties having lately been very troubleſome in theſe Parts, and advanced as far as Mulheim, ſome Works are caſting up about that Place for its Security, and a Fort is building over againſt it on this ſide the Rhine. A Regiment of Horſe of the King of Pruſſia's Forces is alſo ſhortly expected in theſe Parts, which is to be poſted in ſuch Places as lie moſt convenient for preventing the Enemy's Excurſions.

Plimouth, September 10. Her Majeſty's Ship the Worceſter, Captain Canninge Commander, ſailed from hence the 7th Inſtant to cruiſe; and Yeſterday, off the Deadman, took another Privateer belonging to St. Malo, of 14 Guns and 84 Men, called the Marquis de Chiange, Rene Deſcoineties Commander, a new built Ship, that had not been above 4 Days off the Stocks, and was ſent out to get Intelligence of Her Majeſty's Fleet under the Command of Sir Cloudeſly Shovell.

Yarmouth, September 13. The 11th Inſtant the Eaſtland Fleet, with their Convoys, ſailed out of our Road to the Southward; as did at the ſame time ſeveral laden Colliers, bound for the River Thames; and Yeſterday about 50 Sail more of laden Colliers paſſed alſo through our Road to the Southward. Divers light Colliers that came lately into our Road from the Southward ſailed hence this Day for Newcaſtle. Her Majeſty's Ship the Merlin Sloop came this Day into our Road from the Southward, being appointed one of the Convoys for our Herring Fiſhery.

Kenſington, September 13. Monſieur Bonnet, Reſident from his Majeſty the King of Pruſſia, had this Day a private Audience of Her Majeſty, and afterwards of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Denmark: To both which Audiences he was introduced by Charles Cottrell Eſq; Aſſiſtant-Maſter of the Ceremonies.

Her Majeſty and his Royal Highneſs returned this Day to Windſor.

Windſor, September 15. The following moſt dutiful and loyal Addreſſes, congratulating Her Majeſty upon the moſt glorious and happy Succeſſes of the Arms of Her Majeſty and Her Allies, and more eſpecially thoſe under the Command of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, have been preſented to Her Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Bayliffs, Aldermen, Free Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants, of the ancient Corporation of Mropeth in the County of Northumberland: Preſented by Mr. Secretary Harley, in the Abſence of the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Carliſle.

The humble Addreſs of the Repreſentatives in Parliament, the Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants, of the ancient Borough of Northallerton in the North-Riding of the County of York: Preſented by Sir William Huſſler, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; introduced by Mr. Secretary Harley.

Both which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

There are Six Mails due from Holland.

His Royal Highneſs Prince George of Denmark, &c. Lord High Admiral of England, &c. is pleaſed to direct, That the Men which did belong to Her Majeſty's late Ships the Winchelſea and Squirrel, as they return from France, do repair aboard the Winchelſea, a new Ship, built by Mr. Johnſon, at Blackwall, now at Woolwich; and thoſe which do belong to the Deale-Caſtle and Ferret-Sloop, aboard the Deale Caſtle, another new Ship, built by Mr. Burchett, at Deptford, and now at that Place, in order to their ſerving in thoſe Ships reſpectively; on board of which his Royal Highneſs has ordered their Wages to be paid before they ſail from the Nore.

If any Able-bodied Men are willing to ſerve Her Majeſty in the Train of Artillery, let them repair to Capt. Silver, Maſter-Gunner of England, at his Houſe in St. James's Park, or at the Exerciſe on Black-Heath, they ſhall enter into preſent Pay of Seven Shillings a Week, and be further encouraged and advanced as they ſhall deſerve.

Whereas the Houſe of Mr. Edward Gould, at Highgate in the County of Middleſex, was about a Month ago broke open and robbed; and ſeveral Attempts of the ſame kind have been ſince made upon the ſaid Houſe: Her Majeſty, for the better Diſcovery of the Offenders, is pleaſed to promiſe Her moſt Gracious Pardon for the ſaid Crime to any Perſon concerned in the ſaid Robbery and Attempts upon the ſaid Houſe, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplices therein, ſo as they or any of them may be convicted of the ſame.

Windſor, Sept. 8. 1706. RO. HARLEY.

And for the further Encouragement of any Perſon concerned in the ſaid Facts, as ſhall diſcover his Accomplices therein, ſo as one or more of them may be convicted thereof, the ſaid Edward Gould, upon ſuch Conviction, will pay the Sum of Twenty Pound unto the Perſon making ſuch Diſcovery.

The Reward offered by Mr. Gould, mentioned in the laſt Gazette, ſhould have been expreſſed Twenty Pound, as above.
